This Week's Scripture Memory Verse

¹²But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, ¹³who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

John 1:12-13 (ESV)

This Week's 5-Day Bible Reading Plan

John 14 | John 15 | John 16 | John 17 | John 18

1 Timothy 4:11-16 (ESV)

¹¹ Command and teach these things. ¹² Let no one despise you for your youth, but set the believers an example in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. ¹³ Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to exhortation, to teaching. ¹⁴ Do not neglect the gift you have, which was given you by prophecy when the council of elders laid their hands on you. ¹⁵ Practice these things, immerse yourself in them, so that all may see your progress. ¹⁶ Keep a close watch on yourself and on the teaching. Persist in this, for by so doing you will save both yourself and your hearers.

Malachi 2:1-9 (ESV)

¹ And now, O priests, this command is for you. ² If you will not listen, if you will not take it to heart to give honor to my name, says the LORD of hosts, then I will send the curse upon you and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have already cursed them, because you do not lay it to heart. ³ Behold, I will rebuke your offspring, and spread dung on your faces, the dung of your offerings, and you shall be taken away with it. ⁴ So shall you know that I have sent this command to you, that my covenant with Levi may stand, says the LORD of hosts. ⁵ My covenant with him was one of life and peace, and I gave them to him. It was a covenant of fear, and he feared me. He stood in awe of my name. ⁶ True instruction was in his mouth, and no wrong was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many from iniquity. ⁷ For the lips of a priest should guard knowledge, and people should seek instruction from his mouth, for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. ⁸ But you have turned aside from the way. You have caused many to stumble by your instruction. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says the LORD of hosts, ⁹ and so I make you despised and abased before all the people, inasmuch as you do not keep my ways but show partiality in your instruction."

Presbyterian Night Shelter

Presbyterian Night Shelter provides a Christ inspired, "housing first" ministry dedicated to guiding neighbors in Tarrant County from homelessness to stability. Since 1984, their programs have offered a low barrier, 24/7 emergency shelter, day shelter services at True Worth Place, personalized case management, housing assistance, and employment opportunities through UpSpire.

Their vision centers on breaking the cycle of chronic homelessness by empowering guests with tools and support to sustain permanent housing, financial security, and dignity. Recent expansion into permanent affordable housing (Journey Home Housing) with multifamily units and integrated wrap around services, demonstrates their long-term commitment to community transformation.

PNS's impact is profound: they serve individuals and families experiencing homelessness, including veterans and those facing behavioral or economic barriers, helping reduce chronic homelessness and provide hope and stability.

How our church can help: our congregation can partner by giving generously. 100% of funding comes from donors, churches, and grants.

Financial gift enables expanded shelter services, housing, career training, and life changing care.

You can give to PNS at www.fbcbenbrook.org/giving.

We can also support by donating items. Their current most needed items include: towels, washcloths, twin sheets, blankets, men's and women's underwear, Kleenex boxes, and cough drops. You can bring these items to the church office during the month of January.
