This Week's Scripture Memory Verse

*But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.
For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror.
For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like.
(James 1:22-24 ESV)*

THE GOSPEL OF

JOHN

John 14.15-17 ESV

¹⁵If you love me, you will keep my commandments. ¹⁶And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, ¹⁷even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you.

John 14.25-27 ESV

²⁵These things I have spoken to you while I am still with you. ²⁶But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. ²⁷Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.

John 15.26-27 ESV

²⁶But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about me. ²⁷And you also will bear witness, because you have been with me from the beginning.

John 16.7-15 ESV

⁷Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. ⁸And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment: ⁹concerning sin, because they do not believe in me; ¹⁰concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you will see me no longer; ¹¹concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged.

¹²I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. ¹³When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. ¹⁴He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. ¹⁵All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Have an interest in serving in the Church Safety Ministry?

Contact Ron Gotcher (rongotcher1@gmail.com)

Extended Childcare Worker needed for both services once every other month. For more information, please contact Shera Errico, Liz Justl, or the church office.

STAFF NOTES

Liz Justl joined our staff four years ago as Childcare Coordinator. We are very grateful for her faithful service in our children's ministry. Please take a moment this month to encourage and thank Liz for her service.

Blake Theiss will now be leading our Men's Ministry in addition to Student Ministry. Blake and Shera will continue to work together developing ministry to families.

DEACON NOMINATIONS

In accordance with the church by-laws, para 2.3, "the church at the December business meeting shall recommend the men who are to serve as active deacons beginning January 1. "The primary function of deacons in our church is to:

1. Support and assist the pastor and staff
2. Minister to Widows and Widowers
3. Serve on at least one of the Four deacon ministry teams
4. Set an example in Worship, Bible Study, and Prayer Meeting attendance
5. Being a faithful financial contributor"

Deacon qualifications come from 1 Timothy 3:8-13, and nominees must have been a member of the church for at least one year, and have a vibrant personal relationship with Jesus as Savior and Lord. Please begin to pray about who you would recommend.

Nomination forms will be passed out beginning September 15.

September's Kingdom Cause: Modern Day Slavery

International Justice Mission is a global organization that protects people in poverty from violence. They partner with local authorities in 18 countries to combat trafficking and slavery, violence against women and children, and police abuse of power.

Violence affects millions of women and children around the world. Those living in poverty are some of the most vulnerable to a range of everyday forms of violence—including sexual violence and domestic violence. When a man assaults his wife or partner, it's seen as a "family matter" handled inside the home instead of reported to authorities. Sexual violence against children is frequent, and courts are ill-equipped to handle these cases and can't respond when these women and children desperately need protection. Nearly 1 in 5 girls is sexually abused at least once in her life. Nearly 736 million women have experienced physical and/or sexual violence at least once in their lifetime. Worldwide, up to 50% of sexual assaults are committed against girls under 16 years old.

IJM helps restore survivors of violence, builds justice system capacity to identify and restrain offenders, and assists local authorities' efforts to prosecute and hold them accountable. Their goal is to prevent violence from happening in the first place. That's why IJM and their partners pursue sustainable improvements in local justice systems and build communities where all people can expect to be safe and protected.

Each week this month, we will be highlighting differing aspects of IJM's mission to rescue millions from injustice around the world. You can learn more about the human rights tragedy of our time and the work of IJM at their website, www.ijm.org.

Please consider becoming a Freedom Partner with IJM.
